MEETING CALLED to order about 7 pm

MINUTES of the last meeting were approved as published.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT Congratulations to all on a very successful match. We owe Karen a round of applause for a job well done. Chris advised she and Tom talked to the grounds manager after the match and looked around the grounds and buildings at possibilities for future use as a show site. The fairgrounds folk seem very willing to work with us. Chris asks-asked for the board to ~~meet~~ on 11/7 at the Sizzler on Lancaster.

SECRETARY'S REPORT no new correspondence.

TREASURER'S REPORT Treasurer Liz is unable to attend, but gave Chris the following report from the match. We made $591 on the raffle, $685 on entries. All income, including $120 donated by Steve Ross was for a total of $1426. Expenses to date of $249 with a few small bills still out there.

COMMITTEE REPORTS

Achievements No report, Rebecca was unable to attend. Discussion of getting plaques together for updates before the Christmas party.

AKC Liasion No report. Discussion of how close we're getting to our goal for Polk – Yamhill County memberships.

Holiday party Roths is scheduled for Saturday 12/10 for our holiday party. This is one you won't want to miss.

Policy no report.

Email list – no report. Discussion of the yahoo site and email list for members.

Website Go take a look www.silverfallskc.org The site is current, now includes a calendar of upcoming club activities, links to members, and will soon have photos from the match.

Public Education Sandy advises she is still playing phone tag with the Humane Society. Discussion of need to get a dialog going with Animal Control who may have space for meetings and classes at their new facility..

Historian ~~No report~~ Lorene will get the Historian items from former Historian Theresa Kaminski.

Membership ~~WOW!~~ Michelle has six new applications tonight. Discussion of several others in that area ready to apply too.

Spring Match is on March 25 at the state fairgrounds. Chris ~~reports~~ reported she needs -ideas for judges. We will be publishing their names in the premium list. Discussion of vendors, obedience, grounds, photographers, adding a CGC. Chris plans to call a show committee meeting in early January. The following volunteered to serve:

Chief Ring Steward – Al

Show Secretary - Alice

Obedience chair – Chuck ~~Aylworth~~

Vendors – Lorene & Sandy F.

Grounds – Tom L.

CGC – Sandy F.

~~Trophies and prizes – Liz & Rebecca~~

Raffle – Laurie & Beth W.

Spooky paws match - past. Karen reported on another very successful match with an entry of 98 dogs, 137 total entries. A big thank you to the judges: Chris Wallen, Chris Carter, Rene Steward, Sue Mills, and Steve Ross. Special thanks to Steve Ross who doubled as show photographer and donated a large portion of his fee to the club for a total of $120. Karen will send personal thank you note.

Rebecca and Liz deserve a special pat on the back. Everyone raved about the grand decorations, ribbons and prizes.

Much discussion of how to make it better next year including

- ❖ Adjusting schedule to start rally earlier and conformation later.
- ❖ Add line to flyer reminding those interested to have shots current and 'plan to stay all day'
- ❖ Need signs and equipment for cleanup outside and disinfectant spray at ringside
- ❖ Layout this year worked well to gather people together and still have ring space. Discussion of spreading to another building if entry continues to grow.

T-shirts Al would like to put together another order for shirts. List passed around to discover ~~who~~ how many may be needed. Discussion of club purchase of inventory vs. ordering only when sufficient members commit to fill minimum order. Discussion about type and color. Consensus was to keep as is: Heather gray in color, choice of sweatshirt, t-shirt, or polo shirt. Al will check prices and ask those not in attendance about ordering.

Garden Party Chuck reported on his discussion with the owner of Northern Lights. He had hoped to have a contract in hand, but the owner was stranded in Cancun by hurricane Wilma and had to reschedule. Chuck will provide full report at next meeting and we'll shoot for ticket promotion at the Rose City Classic. Details that are worked out so far:

- ❖ Northern Lights will provide tickets for $20 that includes $15 for a food card and access to the cinema, plus a small rebate to the club
- ❖ We must guarantee 20 seats for each night, or 40 seats over the 2 nights. ($400 total sale)
